Mr. and Mrs. Glade Tregaskis

Dr. Glade Lloyd Tregaskis was born July 10, 1932 to Lloyd and Donna Green Tregaskis. Glade has an older brother, Don, who lives in Provo, Utah, and a younger sister, Sandra, who married Lowell Berg, they have made their home in Midway, Utah.

Glade's Grandfather Tregaskis came from Cornwall, England; as a boy he worked in the mines in Bingham, Utah. When he earned enough money, he moved to American Fork to buy a farm and raise chickens. He supported his family and became active in Utah Poultry Association. Glade's father worked for the Utah Poultry, now known as Intermountain Farmers, from the time he was 18 years old until he retired at the age of 65; in all, he worked for them for 47 years.

I asked Glade if there were any experiences he would like to mention that occurred during his childhood, though he did not relate any of the details, Glade said that he still carries the BB shot that struck him in the eye.

The Tregaskis family continued living in American Fork and Glade was active in the band, track, and football. In his senior year he was Studentbody President, and graduated from the American Fork High School in 1950. While attending the B.Y.U., he majored in Zoology, and took a course in pre-dental training.

In September of 1953, Glade Tregaskis and Ellen Bradey were married in the Salt Lake City L.D.S. Temple. Glade continued with his studies at B.Y.U. and he graduated from the "Y" in the spring of 1954.

Ellen Bradey Tregaskis was born on Nov. 7, 1934 in Pleasant Grove, near the town of American Fork. She was the youngest of six children born to Loren and Dona Stott Bradey. She was validictorian when she graduated from Pleasant Grove High School in 1953.

In August of 1954, Glade went into the Air Force, he was stationed, primarily, in Denver where he spent most of his time as a teacher in Basic Electronics. Their first child, Tanya, was born in Denver in 1955.

After leaving the Air Force, the young family left Denver and moved to Kansas City where Glade entered Dental School at the University of Missouri, in the summer of 1956. The second child, Lynn, was born in Sept. 1958, while they lived in Kansas City.

Glade graduated from the University of Missouri in 1960 and he and his wife, Ellen, commenced looking into every small town from Kanab, Ut. to Tremonton, near the Idaho border for the right place to locate. Their first and final choice had been Heber City. They moved to Heber in 1960 and started their business in what is now part of Giovannis' business area, just north of the Ideal theater on Heber Main Street. Their daughter, Jenny was born soon after they came to Heber in 1960. Their daughter, Lisa, was born in Provo, Utah in 1963.

In the spring of 1964, the Tregaskis family moved into their new, combined home and office at 165 East 600 South, Heber City, Utah, where they are prospering.

Molly was born in 1970, completing their family of five daughters.

Glade and Ellen have enjoyed vacationing with their family as they have grown up. Glade has a special enjoyment of boating on Lake Powell, he likes reading, and has bought season tickets for the Pioneer Theater for the last 13 years. He dropped woodwork from his list as a hobby in 1979, when he lost a finger.

Both Glade and Ellen have been active in church work, he has served two bishops as counselor, worked with the Aaronic Priesthood in most positions and served two years on the High Council. Ellen has served two separate times as President of the Young Womens Improvement Association (the M.I.A.), once was Pres. of Primary and is serving as First Counselor of Stake Relief Society.

Ellen is a charter member of the Belle Lettre Club, started 18 years ago; and she served as a member of Wasatch County Planning Committee for two years.

Glade has served as a member of the Wasatch School Board; served on the Library board; he was a member of the Lion's Club; and is presently serving on the Wasatch County Board of Adjustments.

It is always interesting to keep informed of the young folks of a family, so here is the latest information for you class mates: Tanya married Michael McBride, who attends law school at the University of Idaho. They live near by in Moscow, Idaho. They have two sons. Lynn Married Wayne Turner, son of Ben and Happy Turner of Heber City. Wayne helps his father, Ben, operate their Imperial Wholesale Co. in Salt Lake City, Utah. They live in Murray. Jenny is a missionary in the Oklahoma-Tulsa Missouri mission. She is happy in her calling. Lisa married Barton Payne and lives in Orem, Utah. Molly is living at home and attending the Wasatch Middle School which is just across 6th South and on back through the lane from her home.

Glade and Ellen Tregaskis both say they are satisfied that they made the best choice in coming to Heber City in 1960, as the location is good for opportunities to attend either B.Y.U. or U. of U. for advanced education and a good range for choice of employment and entertainment.

They have good neighbors and enjoy living in this valley, while living only an hours drive from their home towns.

Those who live here in Wasatch County are glad to have this family among us.
